Dear Editor:

The article printed on May 27, 2009, "Key Lawmakers Are Opposing Israeli Policy On Settlements," concerning Prime Minister Netanyahu's visit to Capitol Hill is in profound error. As a co-host of the meeting with Jewish Members of the House and Senate, I welcomed the Prime Minister and expressed support for the continued strength of the U.S.-Israel relationship. I most certainly did not challenge the Prime Minister on any aspect of Israeli policy, including the settlements. It was sloppy reporting and a disservice to your readers to have conveyed otherwise.

Sincerely,

Henry A. Waxman
Member of Congress
